

Chapter 1 A House, A Home

Working with the poem

1. Do you agree with what the poet says?
 - (i) A. A house is made of cement, bricks, wood, iron etc.,
 - (ii) A. It has windows, many doors, floors, chimneys, roof etc.,
 - (iii) A. A home is made by brothers, sisters and parents. It is made by the family.
 - (iv) A. It has unselfish acts, kindly sharing, showing love to others and always caring.
2. Now complete these sentences about your house and home.
 - (i) A. My house is built of bricks and cement. It has nice doors and windows. It also consists of beautiful floors, roof and a lovely garden.
 - (ii) A. The best thing about my home is that it is a sweet home because my parents are very much loving and caring.